The Symposium will be held November 11, 2014 in the CEMEX Auditorium at the Graduate School of Business (GSB) on the Stanford Campus. It will begin at 2:30 p.m., doors open at 1:30 p.m.

Caltrain is the most direct form of public transportation to Stanford University and downtown Palo Alto. Please check the Caltrain website for more information. http://www.caltrain.com/

Stanford provides complimentary shuttle service (“Marguerite”) from the Palo Alto Caltrain station to campus. Take the X or Y line shuttle and ask the driver to let you off at the GSB stop. The Y line is more direct. Click on the Marguerite link for schedule and route information. http://transportation.stanford.edu/marguerite/schedules.php

If you drive to campus, complimentary parking has been reserved in the Galvez Lot located on the northeast corner of Campus Drive and Galvez Street. Park in any space with a “TOW AWAY – 10th Year Anniversary” sign or ask the Special Events Patrol Officer for help. CEMEX Auditorium is a 10-minute walk from the Galvez Lot. Follow the red, Stanford Woods Institute for the Environment Event signs to CEMEX Auditorium.

For those guests with a disabled placard or license plate, parking is available in Parking Lot 7 underneath the GSB. You may park in any “Visitor”, “A” or “C” space and take the elevator to the first floor.

If you have questions regarding the symposium please email me at mollie.field@stanford.edu. On the day of the event call the Woods Institute main number at 650-736-8668.